

4 Wet Pigs – by Greg Brown

Strum: ↓ ↓ ↑ ↓ ↑ ↓ ↑ ↓ ↑ (emphasis on first beat)

Intro: [1, 2, 3, 4] [C][G][G][C][F][C][G][C]

[C]Here's a little song about [G]four wet pigs,
Just a little song about [C]four wet pigs,
[F]Two are little, [C]two are big,
They [G]danced all night at the [C]Pig-town jig.

[C][G][G][C][F][C][G][C]

[C]The two that are little, were [G]just half grown
The two that are big, were [C]bigger than a barn,
[F]Bigger than a barn, [C]taller than a tree,
[G]Take 'em on down to the [C]factory.

[C][G][G][C][F][C][G][C]

[C]Slice 'em into bacon, [G]cut 'em into hams,
Chop 'em into hot dogs, [C]squeeze 'em into spam.
[F]Throw their little eyes [C]out in the rain,
[G]Throw their little eyes [C]out in the rain,
[F]Little piggy eyes [C]out into the rain.
[G]Pickle their feet and [C]pickle their brains.

Hum along - [C][G][G][C][F][C][G][C]

[C]Here's a little song about [G]two wet pigs,
Standing at the slop trough, [C]smoking their cigs,
[F]Hoping to god that they [C]never get big
They [G]danced all night at the [C]pig-town jig.
[F]Hoping to god that they [C]never get big,
(slow down last line)
They [G]danced all night at the [C]pig-town jig. ↓
